Dear Parents or Guardian of I.S. 303 students:

The purpose of homework is to extend and reinforce learning and to develop self-discipline and responsible independent thinking. Missing homework's can and will have a negative impact on one's education. Our teachers make homework assignments purposeful and related to class activities to give children a chance to enhance their knowledge on specific topics or skills. It is essential for parents to support their children during homework and ensure that the assignment is completed to the best of their abilities. Parents can offer help in many ways:

- All students must read independently every night.
- Check your child's homework daily and see that ALL assignments are completed, accurate and neat.
- Answer any questions that they may have, however allow the children to work themselves.
- Speak with your children about their assignment and their daily learning each day.

For any questions or concerns about an assignment, do not hesitate to contact your child's teacher. They will answer any questions or concerns that you may have. Thank you for your continued support and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Evan Rabinowitz Assistant Principal
