

INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL 303

Herbert S. Eisenberg

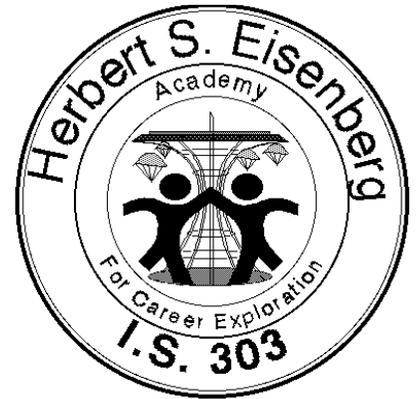

ACADEMY FOR CAREER EXPLORATION

High Expectations, Children First, No Excuses!

Carmen N. Amador-Rosales, Principal

Audrey Houston, Assistant Principal

Evan Rabinowitz, Assistant Principal

September 2021

STUDENTS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Students have a responsibility to know that the following behaviors are considered to be UNACCEPTABLE:

1. Acting in a disrespectful manner towards school personnel.
2. Defying the lawful authority of any school staff member.
3. Disruptive behavior in the classroom, hall or school building.
4. Cutting classes.
5. Leaving classes (or school) without teacher authorization.
6. Being late for school or class.
7. Bringing equipment such as radios, video games, tape players, and cellular phones to school without prior permission.
8. Smoking, drinking, or gambling.
9. Using racial, ethnic, national origin, religious, gender or sexual orientation slurs.
10. Using profane or obscene language or gestures.
11. Fighting.
12. Falsely activating a fire alarm.
13. Engaging in theft.
14. Engaging in vandalism or other intentional damage to school property or the property of staff members or fellow students (graffiti).
15. Possessing or using any weapon as defined in the chancellor's Regulations (Category I and II A-340, 440, or 441).
16. Using force or inflicting serious injury against school personnel, students or others.
17. Selling or distributing illegal drugs or controlled substances.
18. Possessing or using illegal drugs or controlled substances.

Students have a responsibility to expect the following consequences to occur as a result of unacceptable behavior:

1. Student-teacher conference.
 2. Conflict mediation.
 3. Peer Mediation.
 4. Reprimand by school staff (i.e. grade coordinator, teacher).
 5. Home contact (e.g. letter, phone).
 6. Parent Conference
- Reprimand by appropriate supervisor (i.e. assistant principal or principal).

7. Individual or group counseling.
Guidance conference with student and parent.
8. In-school disciplinary action (detention, in-school suspension, exclusion from extracurricular activities).
9. Principal's suspension.
10. Superintendent's suspension – This may result in transfer to another school to continued suspension for a fixed period of 5 to 90 days.
11. Notification of police.
12. Filing of criminal charges.

Thank you for your continued support and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Evan Rabinowitz
Assistant Principal